

RINGWOOD NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

Fordingbridge Walk

Date: 12th March 2025
Weather: Mostly sunny but with a cool wind
Walk Leaders: Jean Crawford and Christine Storey Attendees: 4

Fordingbridge is a town and civil parish on the River Avon in the New Forest District of Hampshire, near the Dorset and Wiltshire borders and famed for its late medieval seven-arch bridge, its known as the northern gateway to the New Forest. The highlight of the walk was a sighting of a White-tailed Eagle.

Flowering Plants	Birds
Daisy	Raven
Red dead-nettle	Buzzard
Lesser Celandine	White-tailed Eagle
Daffodil (Garden escape)	Cetti's Warbler
Hazel Catkins	Little Egret
Green Alkanet	Mute Swan
Goat Willow (Pussy Willow)	Great Tit
Dandelion	Wood Pigeon
Germander Speedwell	Robin
Bittercress	Rook
White dead-nettle	Jackdaw
Sweet Violet	Meadow Pipit
Snowdrop	Blackbird
Common Gorse	Magpie
Blackthorn	Chaffinch
Cherry Plum	Mallard
Groundsel	Moorhen
Common Chickweed	Wren
Common Mouse-ear	Insects
	Buff-tailed Bumble-bee